Introduction

My History... Who am I??

The year was 1997. I was only 24 yrs old and I just got out of a really difficult two year relationship and was seriously DEPRESSED. I LOVED the relationship and all the affection. I was so used to having a girlfriend, and being with someone on weekends.

Now, that was all gone and I had no idea what I was going to do. I tried to spend time with family and friends but I just couldn't stop thinking about her. Clearly, I was addicted to the feeling of being with someone.

You see, she broke up with ME. That was the way it always happened. I had been in several relationships before and it was always HER who broke it off with ME.

I considered myself a nice guy and thought I did everything right but things just didn't work out. There were good times and bad times but I consider it, like all relationships, to be a learning experience.

I was just about to graduate from college with an engineering major, which means there were NO women in my classes. All the women were either ten years older than me, married, unattractive or all of the above.

Now, I'm going to be honest... I was NOT a social person... I was VERY SHY and, not exactly the kind of guy to approach a beautiful woman and ask her out.

When I was in High School, I hung out with a group of friends who were all TERRIBLE with women. I was so shy that I NEVER once had a SERIOUS girlfriend EVER. All my "relationships" were very short... you know, the two week variety.

Every time a woman would show interest in me, I would run in the other direction. My friends would be literally pushing me towards women and I would resist with everything I had. I didn't like going to bars and clubs because I can't stand loud environments with everyone screaming and yelling.

So, now I was without a girlfriend and I didn't know what to do about it. I was living with my college roommate at the time and he was always spending time with his girlfriend, which made things even more difficult.

Well, I started spending more and more time on the computer. I played lots of video games, especially Quake, my favorite. So, when I wasn't playing games I was surfing the internet. Yes, I saw some adult sites, but I also saw a few online dating sites.

I remember the day I found a site called Matchmaker. I looked through the profiles and remember seeing lots of attractive women. In order to communicate with them, all I had to do was sign up, fill out a profile and I'm good to go!! How could it be this easy??

So, I signed up and started responding to profiles. I only responded to women who I thought were my type. I always liked women with DARK features and an outgoing personality.

Well, I would soon learn a tough lesson about internet dating. All the emails I sent out were ignored. I continued to send more emails out to even HOTTER women and, once again, I was treated like I didn't exist.

As for my profile, well it just wasn't doing the job. I got NO responses from attractive women. I thought it was a good profile but looking back now, I have to laugh at it. I really didn't know what I was doing.

I knew something had to change.

I spent the next few weeks really analyzing female profiles trying to find something I could use to attract them. I browsed through Matchmaker and I noticed something interesting.

One of the profile questions asked, "What do you think is SEXY about a guy?" As I read through the answers, I kept expecting to see something like;

His Face...

His Chest...

His Butt...

You know... something to do with physical features.

Well, to my surprise, there were two answers to this question that prevailed among all the profiles;

1) Confidence

And

2) Sense of Humor

How could this be??

So, confidence and a sense of humor are sexy to women!! I can think of a few things I find sexy about women and these two don't even make the top five!

Well, this is when a very BIG light bulb went on in my head. If I can find a way to convey my confidence and MY sense of humor in my profiles and emails, I just might get better results.

So, that's what I did. I tweaked my emails and profiles to show more of my confidence and humor and started sending out messages again.

My results improved dramatically! I also realized that women were really responding to mystery and ambiguity. That made sense because I've always known that women can't resist a good mystery.

So, I sent out more emails.

Shortly after, a woman named Linda responded.

She was an incredibly attractive, half-Asian girl with quite a naughty side. We ended up exchanging several long emails and finally I asked her out. I remember her responding saying, "I thought you would never ask!"

So, we met up at a restaurant, had dinner, and to make a long story short, I ended up spending the night at her house. The relationship only lasted a few months but I couldn't believe I was able to meet a woman so easily from the internet.

Now, I was on a mission. I was going to figure out internet dating and become a MASTER at it NO MATTER WHAT!

It took a lot of patience and will power but fast forward ten years later, and I can honestly say I've become quite a MASTER at internet dating. It's not easy to do at first and it's important to develop a system but once you do, you'll be meeting women whenever you want....HOT women!!

So, it's time for me to share with you what I've learned in ten years of internet dating. I want to tell you ALL of it and I'm not holding anything back!! I want you to MASTER Internet Dating!!

This book is divided into several chapters, each taking you through all the steps from writing a profile to meeting a woman live and in person. There's tons of great stuff and after reading it, I guarantee you'll be meeting a LOT more women than you are now.

I've decided to make this book light on theory and heavy on examples because, in my opinion, that is the best way to learn. One of the things in this book you won't see are stories about evolution and why the "Alpha Male" is the dominant one in the group.

What you WILL see are several great examples of emails I've sent as well as profiles I've used to land me A LOT of dates with beautiful women.

One thing I want to make clear is I'm not about trying to attract and sleep with low quality women. I'm also definitely not about tricking, manipulating or hypnotizing women. I've come to the point in my life where it's all about meeting, mature, beautiful, high quality women. Everything I wrote in this book is designed to get TOP caliber women!

So take this book and use it as a guide. Come back to it often and reread the parts that you really need to learn. It's very easy to get the skills down and once you do, your dating life will never be the same again!

OK, now let's turn you into an Internet Dating Master!!!

Chapter 1: Your Mindset

Topic 1: The Right Mindset for Internet dating.

So, what state of mind do you have to be in when you start Internet Dating?

Let's start out by remembering what it was like to go through a tough time in your life.

Well, if you are like me and you've been through a bad breakup, you know that it's tough to get back into the dating scene. I want you to remember what it was like when you felt vulnerable. What was going through your mind? What were you thinking? And most importantly, what were some of your behaviors? How were you coming off to people?

Got it?

Good!

I'm going to guess you were depressed and very down. That made you less passionate about life. You were not focused on your mission or you did not have anything to be passionate about... You didn't feel ALIVE!

So what happened when you tried to date women in this state of mind? Right, it didn't work out so well.

Now, what I'm about to tell you is extremely important so pay attention!!

It is absolutely critical that you have your life together when you start dating. You should have your emotions under control and be working towards your mission in life. Why is this important??

Because, a man on a mission with goals, aspirations, and ambition is extremely attractive to the opposite sex. Having your life together and pursuing your mission will make you busy, passionate and more alive. You will feel better about yourself and people WILL notice that!

So, before you go online and write that profile, ask yourself a few questions:

- 1) Am I Happy?
- 2) Am I passionate about life?
- 3) Am I currently going after my mission in life?
- 4) Am I still hung up on another woman?
- 5) Am I feeling confident about myself?
- 6) Do I really believe in myself? Do I absolutely believe that I deserve a REALLY attractive woman?
- 7) Do I have any negative beliefs about myself?
- 8) Do I give off a really positive vibe when I'm around other people?
- 9) Do I love myself?

Do I REALLY know who I am??

Write down your answers to these questions and study them, as they will be important later on.

Topic 2: Your Lifestyle... “You are a busy guy”

Now, let's talk about developing a quality lifestyle. What are some of your hobbies right now? What do you do on your days off? How far along in your career are you? These are all important questions!

Why?

Because as I mentioned earlier, a guy with a busy life who has ambition and goals is very attractive to women.

Think about how you would behave if you were SUPER busy and had a lot going on in your life. How would that affect your dating life and how you communicate with women? Picture yourself working long days, maybe 10 to 12 hour days. You are exhausted when you get home. You stumble into your chair and turn on your computer. You see some attractive women and think,

“Man, I don't have the time to email all these women. I'm just going to send out a few QUICK emails and then crash on the couch.”

So, you fire off some emails, speaking from the heart without an ounce of self-consciousness. You spend maybe five minutes doing this and then shut off the computer. What would you write? What would you convey by doing this?

That's RIGHT! You'd be telling a woman something along these lines:

“Listen, I'm real busy and I'm focused on some really important things right now, but I thought I'd take a minute to give you some of my time. I don't care if you are interested or not because I don't know you and you don't know me. It's no big deal... I could take it or leave it.”

Now, THAT is how you are going to approach Internet Dating. Don't ever forget this mindset. That's where you want to be when writing profiles, emails, meeting in person... EVERYTHING!!

OK, you've got the right mindset going, so now let's focus on the TWO things women find most attractive about men.

Topic 3: Your Confidence and YOUR Sense of Humor!

There are a lot of products out there that teach men how to attract women. I studied just about ALL of them. One thing I learned is that everything about a man that attracts women can be narrowed down to his confidence and his sense of humor.

A man with confidence is attractive. It shows he is strong, healthy and able to protect a woman. A man with a great sense of humor is attractive because it shows not only that he's healthy, but he's also smart, witty, and has a good personality. It also gives him a spark and ignites emotion inside a woman.

So, these are the two things you must convey while internet dating.

Take a minute now and write down all the things about yourself that demonstrate your strength and confidence. Are you independent? Do you know how to handle yourself when things get tough? Are you in a supervisory role at your job? These are all good examples.

Next, you need to write down what you find funny. In other words, what is YOUR sense of humor? What kind of TV shows, jokes, stories, comedians really make you laugh. Do you like dry humor, sarcasm, dumb humor? Make sure you write that down so you have an idea of who you really are.

So, now that you are in the right state of mind, let's take a look at some Internet Dating Sites.

Key Points to Remember From Chapter 1

- Your mindset after a BAD breakup and how that affects your behavior
- How having your head screwed up would affect your dating life
- What does it mean to be a "busy guy"?
- A "busy guy" is attractive to women because it shows he is on his mission in life
- Always be in a positive state of mind while dating women
- Confidence and sense of humor are what women find most attractive
- How are YOU confident?
- What is YOUR sense of humor?

Chapter 2: Internet Dating Sites

Topic 1: Which sites should you use?

Now, there are about as many online dating sites out there as there are women in any given city. So, with all those sites to choose from, where do you start?

Well, I believe in making things VERY simple and that means you only stick to the most popular dating sites with the most active members. There's no point in posting a profile on 20 different sites when you won't have the time to put any effort into your emails and profiles.

So, which sites?

Here is a list of the more popular paid sites...

Chapter 3: Lets Set Up Your Profile

Topic 1: Writing an Online Profile

I remember back when I wrote my first online dating profile. It was a little over ten years ago and it was a STRUGGLE to say the least. I remember putting it off and even dreading it.

I sat down in front of my computer trying to find the best words I could use to describe myself. I even tried to imagine what a very HOT woman would want to see when she browsed my profile. Well, this kind of thinking led to disaster!

Let's take a look at my very first pitiful attempt at writing a profile all those years ago:

Headline: Nice guy here!! (Ouch! We're already off to a BAD start.)

Body: "Hello, and thanks for reading my profile. Gosh, it's always hard to write something about myself. Well, here goes. Anyway, I'm just a simple guy. I like going out to restaurants and hanging out with friends. It's so hard for me to date in this area so I thought I would try online dating.

I'm looking for a nice woman who wants to go out and have a nice time. So, if you like what you see in my profile then drop me a line."

There you have it! This was my painful first profile. Just in case you think this might be a good profile, let me explain why it's not something you should ever use on any dating site!

First, I start off with a very unoriginal and cliché headline. (Oh, I forgot to mention that the screen name I used was "Real Mr. Right.")

Ouch!

Anyway, I start off my profile with very passive language almost apologizing for being on a dating site and wasting some woman's time. I then go on to say how I'm a "simple guy" and I like to "hang out with friends." WOW, now that's going to get a woman responding to a man every time!!

(You just caught a glimpse of MY sense of humor.)

I then explain how hard it is for me to meet women, (deadly mistake.) I talk about the kind of woman I want to meet, continuing to bore the reader to death... then I conclude my ad by telling her that IF she approves of me then she should write back.

Now, what am I conveying about myself in this profile? Basically, I'm telling a woman:

"I'm a really unconfident guy and I'm sorry for taking some of your time. Would you consider going out with me because no other women will give me the time of day? Thank you and I'm sorry again for wasting your time."

OUCH!! YUCK!!

That is what every attractive woman who reads that profile is going to think of me. You never want to be passive in your profile and you want to convey CONFIDENCE with a dash of humor mixed in. I did not do any of those things. So, now let's get on to how we are supposed to write an AWESOME profile!

So, just how long do you have to wait between emails? Well, what I've found is that there are too many guys out there getting caught up in email timing. Should I wait three days, five days, etc? Remember, the whole point of online dating is to meet a woman live and in person AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!

So, here's a good rule of thumb...

Well, when you have been involved with online dating for as long as I have, you're going to see all kinds of things. And unfortunately, online dating scams are something I've seen way too many times.

I don't know about you but I HATE scammers! I can't stand anyone who tries to scam people and I especially dislike those who try and scam men on internet dating sites.

With the number of men on internet dating sites growing every day, it's no wonder that someone out there is going to try and take advantage of the vulnerable.

Now the most common internet dating scams usually involve...

During my many years of internet dating, I've seen lots of different types of women. Some are better for longer term relationships and some are short term girls. This mostly has to do with a woman's character and maturity. Everyone is at a different place in his or her life at any given time and this really has a big effect on how a relationship is going to unfold.
